

AGENDA

9.00-9.45 am Registration

Welcoming Words and Introduction (15')

Jonathan Greenwald, Vice President, International Crisis Group; Dr. Nicholas Kittrie, University Professor, American University; Dr. Margot Gotzmann, President, GRL Development; Dr. Ken Weinstein, Chief Executive Officer, Hudson Institute

10.00 am - 12.30 pm Morning Session

Chair: Jonathan Greenwald, Vice President, International Crisis Group

1. International Migration and Development – New United Nations Global Agenda for Migration and Development Policies Soren Jessen-Petersen, Head of DC Office, Independent Diplomat & Fellow Scholar, US Institute of Peace (15')
2. A 3D Security Approach to Immigration: Considerations for Development, Diplomacy and Defense Dr. Lisa Schirch, Program Director, 3D Security Initiative (10')

Questions and Answers (10')

3. Selected Examples of Immigration Policies in the World. Lessons to be Learned: (40')
 - (a) Second Thoughts about the Guest Worker Program. Lessons from the European Experience Dr. Esther Lopatin, Visiting Scholar, Institute for the Study of International Migration, Georgetown University & Adjunct Professor, Department of Political Science, The George Washington University (10')
 - (b) Australia's 200-year Experiment in Managed Immigration Dr. Greg Brown, Professor, Center for Australian and New Zealand Studies, Georgetown University (10')
 - (c) Canada Dr. Shaista Khilji, Associate Professor, Human and Organizational Studies, Coordinator Masters Program, The George Washington University (10')
 - (d) Immigration, Faith and Identity - The Case of Israel Dr. Avi Beker, Visiting Professor, Government Department, Georgetown University (10')

Questions and Answers (10')

4. The Situation of Ethnic Diasporas in the United States – their Characteristics, Aspirations, Present Status and Perspectives of Successful Integration and Development: (25')
 - (a) Negotiations around Citizenship, Belonging and Nationhood: the Latino Population in the U.S. Dr. María-Amelia Viteri, Visiting Professor, Catholic University of America, Washington D.C.; Associate Professor FLACSO/Ecuador (Latin American Graduate School of Social Sciences) (10')

AGENDA

Session One Continued

- (b) The Chinese Diaspora in the United States Dr. Larry Shinagawa, Director, Asian American Studies Program & Associate Professor, American Studies, University of Maryland (15')

Questions and Answers (10')

5. Global Mobility and Lifelong Learning: Developing American and Global Citizens Dr. Maria Cseh, Director of the Human and Organizational Learning Program, The George Washington University & Member of Board of Directors, Academy of Human Resource Development; Dr. Consuelo Waight, Professor of Human Resource Development, University of Houston (15')

Questions and Answers (10')

12.25-1.05 pm Lunch & opportunity to see Exhibits (conference level & ground level) (40')

1.10- 3.50 pm Afternoon Session Chairs: Dr Maria Cseh, The George Washington University, Dr. Ken Weinstein, Hudson Institute

1. The Labor Market Effects of Immigration Diana Furchtgott-Roth, Director, Center for Employment Policy, Hudson Institute (15')

Questions and Answers (10')

2. U.S. Immigration Policy in the 21st Century: Consistencies, Contradictions, and Conflicts with Current Law, Practice, and Broader National Policy Concerns Kelly Ryan, Deputy Assistant Secretary, Bureau of Population, Refugees, and Migration, U.S. Department of State, Amy Novick, Attorney, Maggio & Kattar, P.C.; Ben Johnson, Executive Director, The American Immigration Law Foundation (35')

Questions and Answers (10')

3. The American Society, Social Culture and Human Development Dr. Margot Gotzmann, President, GRL Development (15')

Questions and Answers (10')

4. Is Immigration an American Strength? Voices of Representatives of Immigrant Societies, Local Governments and Non-profit Organizations Kevin McGuire, Executive Director, Family Investment Administration, Department of Human Resources, Government of Maryland; Lily Qi, Commissioner for Maryland Governor's Commission for Asian-Pacific American Affairs & President, Organization of Chinese Americans; Jenifer Smyers, Associate for Immigration and Refugee Policy, Church World Service (30')

Questions and Answers, Concluding Discussion (30')

5. Final Comments and Summaries. Recommendations and Action Plans. (10')

3.50-4.20 pm Reception (30')